Fourth Sunday in Advent

Our liturgy calls us today to believe, trust and wait patiently for God to accomplish what God has promised. Christmas is coming in a few days, when God's promise will take flesh in Jesus who will give everything he has to assure us that his kingdom of peace and justice will not be denied and will surely come.

Meanwhile, we cannot sit back and do nothing. We must put into practice the hope we have. Mary did not withdraw from the world to treasure the gift she had received. We learn from Mary's meeting with Elizabeth to go out to meet another in need: share with them a gesture of welcome, care and love. Judging from Mary and Elizabeth's meeting today such encounters are potential moments of grace, blessing and joy. Before Christmas arrives, is there someone I should visit? Bring a peaceable presence? Is this someone I have been avoiding and need to spend a little time with... the elderly, sick, needy pregnant? The time for our response to God's Word is now. ## Last Days of Advent

St. Pope John Paul II, Dec. 18, 2002

Pope John Paul II in his address on Dec. 18, 2002 said, "The liturgy of Advent...helps us to understand fully the value and meaning of the mystery of Christmas. It is not just about commemorating the historical event, which occurred some 2,000 years ago in a little village of Judea. Instead, it is necessary to understand that the whole of our life must be an 'advent,' a vigilant awaiting of the final coming of Christ. To predispose our mind to welcome the Lord who, as we say in the Creed, one day will come to judge the living and the dead, we must learn to recognize him as present in the events of daily life. Therefore, Advent is, so to speak, an intense training that directs us decisively toward him who already came, who will come, and who comes continuously."

Christmas is one of the most important days of the Church year, second only to Easter itself. It is the feast of the incarnation, the feast of God becoming flesh (the Latin "in carne" means "enfleshment"). It is a uniquely Christian teaching, the Divine choosing to become one of us. Because of this belief, God is not only Transcendent, but also wholly Immanent, Emmanuel (God-with-us). While remaining Transcendent (meaning we must rise above our present condition to reach Him), He is at the same time Immanent (meaning He is with us as we rise toward Him). Every Eucharist is like Christmas where the bread and wine are transformed into His flesh, His Body and Blood, and, in a sense, He is born anew on the altar.

The liturgical season of Christmas begins with the vigil Masses on Christmas Eve and concludes on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. During this season, we celebrate the birth of Christ into our world and into our hearts, and reflect on the gift of salvation that is born with him...including the fact that he was born to die for us.

EXTRAORDINARY JUBILEE OF MERCY

DEC. 8, 2015 - NOV. 20, 2016

"IT WILL BE A HOLY YEAR OF MERCY."

Jesus Reveals God's Mercy

Jesus is the face of the Father's mercy and reveals God as a Father who never gives up until he has forgiven the wrong and overcome rejection with compassion and mercy. Jesus affirms that mercy is not only God's action, but as God's children we are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us. Pardoning offences becomes the clearest expression of merciful love, and for us Christians it is an imperative from which we cannot excuse ourselves. In mercy, we find proof of how God loves us. God gives his entire self, always, freely, asking nothing in return.

January's calendar will be in next week's bulletin. If there is an event or meeting you would like to see on the calendar, please notify the office by Tuesday, December 22nd.

STEUBENVILLE

It is time to plan for next summer's Catholic Youth Conference at Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio next summer. Youth who will be going into 9th grade next year or who are graduating seniors are invited to attend. Please go to <http://steubenvilleconferences.com/> to find out more. We will be reserving our weekend in January; more information will follow. We only need to know if you are likely to attend. Contact the office or Sarah Hazelton to reserve your spot.
