THE 7 SPIRITUAL & 7 CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities (cf. Isaiah 58:6-7; Hebrews 13:3). Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead (cf. Matthew 25:31-46). Among all these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God (cf. Tobit 4:5-11; Sirach 17:22; Matthew 6:2-4).

He who has two coats, let him share with him who has none and he who has food must do likewise (Luke 3:11). But give for alms those things which are within; and behold, everything is clean for you (Luke 11:41). If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit? (James 2:15-16; cf. 1 John 3:17)

THE 7 SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are oriented toward the soul. Though ideally applicable for all faithful, not everyone is considered capable or obligated to perform the first three Spiritual Works of Mercy before they possess the proper tact, knowledge or canonical training to do so. The remaining four Spiritual Works of Mercy are considered to be an obligation of all faithful to practice unconditionally.

THE 7 CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

The Corporal Works of Mercy are oriented toward the body. Six of the seven are mentioned in Matthew 25:31-40 – although not precisely – as the reason for the salvation of the saved, while Matthew 25:41-46 exhorts the omission of them as the reason for damnation. As deprivation of burial was viewed with horror by the Jews, the seventh Corporal Work of Mercy (Tobit 1:17-19) was later added.

LIVING ROSARY EVALUATION

As we approach the New Year, it is my hope that the Living Rosary will continue in our parishes. Please be in touch if you wish to take a break or pray a different decade for the new year. If you haven't been a participant but would like to pray one decade with the group beginning in January, let me know and I will add your name to our email group.

FROM YOUR HEALTH MINISTRY

RSV - (Respiratory Syncytial Virus) is one of the most commonly contracted viruses. The majority of people will have been infected by the time they are toddlers. RSV causes cold-like symptoms and children will recover in a week or two. It can cause more serious infections in the lungs as well. Prior infection does not prevent you from getting infected again. Subsequent episodes tend to be milder.

RSV is spread through coughing or sneezing or touching a contaminated surface and then touching your nose or mouth.

Handwashing is the best way to stop the disease spread. Also sneezing into a tissue or your shirt sleeve, not your hands.

There is no vaccination for the disease. Any medication given is for children with heart or lung disease to prevent development of more severe illness.

Giving Trees are in both of our churches. Unwrapped gifts need to be in the rectory office by December 19th. Thank you for your generosity to local families in need.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Month Four—Developing Baby

Well, your little baby now weighs 6 ounces. He has fingernails and eyelashes. He has his own unique fingerprints which will remain unchanged throughout his life. His tastebuds are working. His sense of hearing is present at 14 weeks. There are no major bodily developments anymore. Your spiritually adopted baby is already well-formed, internally and externally. All he needs now is time to gain weight and grow strong.

Dear Lord,

Thank you for creating me with every little feature and characteristic that makes me special.

*"We are the clay, You are the potter, the work of Your hand."
Please continue praying for me and my mother.*

Don't forget your food pantry donations of non-perishable items. Consider volunteering to help feed the hungry! Boxes are in both churches for non-perishable donations.
