SPIRITUAL ADOPTION—MONTH TWO

Developing Baby... now called a "fetus" (Latin for "little one"). She is making rapid progress developing all her external and internal organs. During the second month baby teeth form, and fingers and toes are developing. Her ears, nose, lips, and tongue can now be clearly seen. Brain waves can be recorded. The skeleton changes from cartilage to bone. The central nervous system is now functioning, so forty muscle sets begin their first exercises. By 8 weeks, all body systems are present. This little one can now suck her thumb and is about two inches long. Thank you for praying for this precious little baby!

"For thou hast possessed my reins; thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well." -Psalm 139:13-14

HEALTH MINISTRY NOTES

Two questions for you! I know—a test at this time of day? Really?! You must be kidding! Not kidding, and this could be serious. Is your medicine stored in the medicine cabinet in the bathroom? If so, get the medicine out of the high humidity area of the bathroom. Humidity can cause a breakdown of the active ingredients in the medication. Do you have outdated, unused medications that you keep just in case? If any medicine has been discontinued by your physician or has expired, you need to dispose of them. So, what to do? Flushing medicine down the toilet is not recommended especially for prescription drugs. Pharmacies cannot take medication back once they have been dispensed. One option is to take the medication out of its original container and mix it with an undesirable substance such as coffee grounds or kitty litter. You can add hot water to the resealable container and place in an empty resealable container for disposal. The empty medication bottle should have the label removed or information scratched out before disposal. This helps protect your identity and private health information. Don't share the medicines with a friend or neighbor. A drug that works for you could be dangerous for someone else. When in doubt about proper disposal of any medication (prescription or over the counter medication) talk to your pharmacist.

We are in need of volunteers. Please consider this worthy opportunity. Go to www.samaritanhouseofwellsboro.org for more information. THANK YOU!!

CONFIRMATION CLASS NOTES | CATHOLIC ORIGINS OF “HALLOWE’EN”

It all started in 741 when the Feast of All Saints was moved from May 13th to November 1st to coincide with the dedication of the All Saints chapel at St. Peter’s in Rome. In the 840s, a Papal decree moved it to a global celebration. In the language of the time, hallow was used the same way we use Saint today; in fact, it is a Germanic term for holy. We still use it in a limited way today in The Lord’s Prayer—“hallowed be thy name” simply means “may your name be holy.” Hallows are souls already in heaven. Just as with other important liturgical feasts, preparation occurred on the day before and became a celebration itself. All Hallows Even—with “even” being in the same family of words as eve and evening—became Hallowe’en. That covers pretty cleanly where the name of the holiday comes from (the etymology)... but how did it come to be associated with evil?

In 998, the man who would become Saint Odilo, Patron Saint of the souls in Purgatory, was Abbot of the Monastery of Cluny in southern France. Odilo designated November 2nd as a day to pray for “All Souls” in Purgatory. Soon after, this feast day spread to the rest of Europe. It seems the Irish laity began celebrating a feast in remembrance of the souls in hell, and although it was not added to the liturgical calendar, the tradition followed them to the New World. There, Irish Catholics lived in communities and intermarried with French Catholics, who had a tradition of dressing up for the danse macabre (dance of death) on

All Souls Day as a memento mori (remember your death). The French tradition focused on our individual mortality rather than a fear of those in hell as was the Irish tradition. Even at this time, however, inclusion of demons, monsters, and witches was unheard of,

and are a much later addition to our understanding of the day. Witches seem to have been added by Halloween themed greeting cards in the late 1800s, with the advent of reliable mail! The jack-o’-lantern was added in the same time period by misguided folklorists conflating ancient Celtic harvest festivals and the Catholic Holiday, re-imagining the carved turnip lamps for pumpkins of the new world.

Simply stated, Halloween was never about a glorification of evil. Even if some details are more akin to pious legend than to historically provable fact, there is even less evidence for an ancient pagan origin to the evil seen in today’s secular Halloween celebrations. So, how do we navigate this distortion?

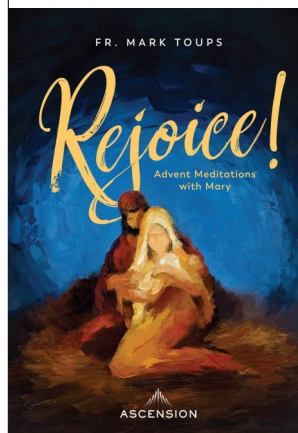

First we should consider that the horrendous evil and demonic influence seen today is secular and is a distortion of Halloween. Dressing as a superhero or even a monster is not intrinsically evil, but we must shy away from costumes or activities that glorify sins and evil. I don’t need to get too graphic for folks to understand what these glorified sins might be. As long as we guide our children and ourselves in understanding that dressing up is just that—dressing up and playing. We all have to decide for ourselves and our family what is appropriate for our faith, but also to guard against scrupulosity out of fear or misunderstanding of the origins and true meaning of the celebration.

Just like other Holy Days of obligation, there are liturgical adjustments that take place on Halloween. The Liturgy of the Hours, for example, recognizes Halloween as a valid option to satisfy the obligation for All Souls Day.

Whether you dress up, go trick-or-treating, attend a party, or eschew the secular celebration altogether, at least ensure you set aside some time to pray for, and reflect on, the Saints in Heaven and the Souls in Purgatory over these important feast days and their vigils. ✠ Your Brother in Christ, ~Z. Buck (catechist)

MARIAN MINISTRIES

REJOICE! ADVENT BOOK STUDY

This book takes readers through the four weeks of Advent in the company of Mary. The reflections are simple but thought-provoking.

As in the past, we’ll form an online community for sharing and discussion. This year, Advent begins on Sunday, December 3rd. Books will be provided.

If you would like to join this prayer and study group, use the sign-up sheet at Holy Child or St. Mary’s or email Marian Ministries at marian-ministries@outlook.com by Monday, November 20th. For more information, call or text Linda Sampson (570-404-2180).

REJOICE! “lets you walk beside Mary during the first Advent [and] get to know her in a way you haven’t before. It offers more than insights and information about Mary’s life—it offers an opportunity for you to encounter Mary in the quiet of your heart. Each day, in a few short pages, Fr. Toups provides you with aids to help guide your prayer:

A word - Focus on a single word each day to draw out the details, the specifics of who Our Lady is.

A reflection - Learn more about Mary, the culture in which she was raised, and the world in which she lived.

A Psalm - Each day, you’re given a Psalm to pray (just as Mary would have prayed) to help you enter into prayer.

A reading - In reading Scripture, the Word of God brings you closer to Mary, who carried the Word in her body.

A prompt - Space is provided each day to journal. Record how the Lord is speaking to you this Advent.”

LIVING ROSARY CELEBRATION

BIBLE STUDY: JESUS & THE END TIMES; A CATHOLIC VIEW OF THE LAST DAYS

Have you ever wondered what the Bible teaches about the End of Time? Many Catholics have heard of “the Rapture”, the “Antichrist”, and the Second Coming, but are unsure exactly what to believe. The Catholic Church has very explicit teachings about these topics. What is the meaning of Jesus’ prophecies of tribulation and the coming of the Son of Man? Are we in the “end times” now? Why did Jesus prophecy the destruction of the Temple, and how does it relate to the End of the World? Why is the Protestant belief in a secret “Rapture” a dangerous belief? What does the Bible teach about the coming of the Antichrist? What will the Final Judgment be like, and how will we be judged? These and many more questions will be answered in this eight-part series—surely Dr. Pitre’s most fascinating Bible study yet! Join us October 29th after the 11:15am Mass.
