NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

real presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament (Holy Communion). Looking at it from another perspective, this means that only 31% of Catholics in the United States believe in the source and summit of the Christian faith."

-Fr. Donald Calloway

Marian Ministries is hosting another book study focused around the National Eucharistic Revival.

"Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist." - National Eucharistic Revival website.

From June 18 - July 17, we will be reading, discussing, and sharing the book, "30 Day Eucharistic Revival: A Retreat with St. Peter Julian Eymard", written by Fr. Donald H. Calloway, MIC.

Anyone interested in joining the study group can contact Chris Troncone (570-404-7278 call/text) or Linda Sampson (570-404-2180 call/text) to get on the email list. All participants will be responsible for purchasing their own book.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART

We await the final promise of Our Lady at Fatima as we continue to respond to her requests to atone for sinners and make reparation, urgently needed today.

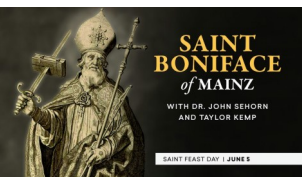

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Using passages from Sacred Scripture, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers discuss the Church's teaching on the Sacred Heart and the background of the devotion.

SAINT BONIFACE | CATHOLIC SAINTS

Known as the "Apostle to Germany," the bishop and martyr St. Boniface worked tirelessly to renew the Church in Germany. Although his efforts ultimately bore great fruit and helped to recenter the faith of the Germans, St. Boniface often felt like a failure in his missionary work.

SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI—SUNDAY, JUNE 2

Is it really the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, true God and true man? Or are these believers deluded, confusing some unleavened bread with a Person? And how is this Jesus even "present" in this bread? Has its reality changed, and if so, how?

Transubstantiation, as Catholics understand it, means that the "substance" of the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ. Protestants, rejecting transubstantiation, employ a variety of explanations that, for the most part, culminate in negating the reality of Jesus's Presence.

While some Lutherans maintain a Eucharistic theology that is similar to Catholic theology, even their thought is not completely reconcilable in all respects (which raises questions about what the German Bishops think German Protestants are "sharing" with their Catholic co-nationals when they propose intercommunion).

Most Protestants, however, have reduced Jesus's Presence to a "mystical" or "symbolic" reality that we should perhaps refer to as the Real Absence, as attested by the fact that, as one crosses the Protestant spectrum towards lower ecclesiastical polities, the frequency of Eucharistic celebration declines. In the Calvinist tradition, for example, the "Eucharist" is classically celebrated quarterly.

Regarding the "Real Presence," in his encyclical on the Eucharist Mysterium fidei, Bl. Paul VI wrote that "the way in which Christ becomes present in this Sacrament is through the conversion of the whole substance of the bread into His body and of the whole substance of the wine into His blood, a unique and truly wonderful conversion that the Catholic Church fittingly and properly calls transubstantiation." The late pope insisted that this transformation was "ontological," the Eucharist being "not what was there before, but something completely different; and not just in the estimation of Church belief but in reality".

Catholicism is an instinctively 'fleshy' religion — just ask the many pilgrims who travel to see the incorrupt bodies of Saints. This fleshiness is appealing to human beings because we are creatures of flesh and blood. It is not as if the Church, in choosing to allow the veneration of corpses and relics, is creating some strange superstition out of whole cloth; rather, the church is allowing people to approach religion in one of the ways that is most natural and instinctive to us: through our bodies. It was Jesus, after all, who said:

I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever; and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, for the life of the world. ... Amen, amen I say unto you: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you shall not have life in you. He that eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, hath everlasting life: and I will raise him up in the last day (John 6:51,53).

SOLEMNITY OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Friday, June 7th

What is an Enthronement of the Sacred Heart?

Jesus promised St. Margaret Mary Alacoque that He “will bless the home in which the image of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and honored.” When we enthrone (display) the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in a prominent place and signify that Jesus is the King, friend and brother of the family, we are responding to the invitation of the Church to make our homes “Domestic Churches”, wherein Jesus is the center and source of love for all. As the sanctuary church lamp reminds us of Christ’s presence in the tabernacle, the enthroned image of the Sacred Heart reminds us that Jesus is among us and with us. By this covenant we make our homes and hearts His tabernacle.

We also consecrate ourselves to the Immaculate Heart of Mary who always leads us to her Son. This is the reason why our Blessed Mother should be part of your home life. Through her Immaculate Heart, she leads you to the Sacred Heart of her Son, and He in turn will lead you to the Eucharist where He is truly present, and thus will make of your home not only a house of prayer but indeed, a Marian and Eucharistic shrine. If you do your best, Jesus and His mother will do the rest!

Teaching on Jesus’ Exposed Heart

In an Enthronement ceremony, a blessed picture or a statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is used.

Any image is usable, as long as it replicates what St. Margaret Mary described seeing when Our Lord appeared to her:

- Crown of thorns
- A Wound, from the soldier’s spear, showing that our sins hurt Him in the Heart.
- Flames show the intensity of His Love.
- Above the flames, a Cross shows that His Love for us was so great that He died for us.

These are the symbols of His passion. We were redeemed by the cross and we will be saved by it.

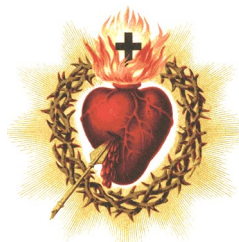

Catechesis on the Enthronement

The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart is an Apostolate founded by Father Mateo Crawley-Boevey, SS.CC. to win souls to Christ. It is a crusade to conquer the whole world to the love of the Sacred Heart. The essence of it is Love. It is rooted in scripture. The heart and soul of it is the Eucharist. The Redeeming power of it is the Mass. The goal of it is to unite the tabernacle of the church and the tabernacle of the home in order to make domestic churches of the homes.

The Enthronement Apostolate is rooted in Sacred Scripture and private revelation. The latter in particular refers to our Lord’s encounter with St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in the 17th Century and the many promises he made to those who honor His most Sacred Heart. In the 19th Century, these promises were abridged by an Ohio businessman named Philip Kemper who documented twelve distinct statements (promises) approved by Pope Leo XIII in 1899. Father Mateo had a desire to put into effect all of Christ’s promises and to draw families into intimate relations with Jesus through the Enthronement.

The Preparation

Before inviting Jesus into our homes and proclaiming Him as the King and Head of our household, we must be well prepared. The real gift of the Enthronement is the awareness of the Living Presence of God in our homes, therefore we prepare our hearts and home with that gift of His coming foremost on our minds. When introducing the King of Love into any home, a forerunner is sent to ensure that the family fully realizes the importance of what is going to take place, and that the ceremony is performed with all the piety and reverence that it deserves. The nine day preparation period begins with a promoter coming to your home to offer support and to explain all aspects of the preparation and the ceremony. The promoter will also bring you a pilgrim picture of our Lady of Perpetual Help and lead the family in praying the Rosary. Mary leads the way for the Kingship of her Son. When you draw close to Mary, she will draw you closer to her Son. This time together will open your hearts and your home to the fullness of grace that the King of Kings wants to give you from His Heart. The greater the preparation the greater the graces.

THE ENTHRONEMENT IS A PUBLIC PROCLAMATION THAT JESUS IS THE KING AND HEAD OF THE HOUSEHOLD.

The Meaning of the Enthronement

The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart means the official and social recognition of the loving kingship of the Heart of Jesus in the Christian family. The family acknowledges this recognition by solemnly installing an image of the Sacred Heart in a place of honor in the home and dedicating itself to Him by an Act of Consecration. The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart is the recognition of the living presence of our Lord in the home, where His Divine Heart, as King of Love, is the center of the family, attracting all its members.

Jesus is invited to participate in all activities of the family. He then sanctifies all the details of home life. By the Enthronement and under the influence of the Sacred Heart, each member learns intimacy with Jesus. Either as a family or individually, each will grow in confidence and love with the One who longs for our love. Thus, the gift of the Enthronement is an awareness of His Living Presence in the family and a source of grace and blessings for the family.

The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart is more than a mere veneration of an image or a transient consecration. It becomes a “way of life”, a sharing of hearts, a permanent state of devotion and love. The home becomes a “Domestic Church” – a place where Jesus is loved and where a family will render reparation to the King of Love.

A Powerful Aid to Pastors

As the Enthronement creates an intimate relationship between the Church and the home, and results in greater love for the Eucharist, so it also creates a close relationship between priests and families. The Enthronement is therefore a powerful aid to the pastor, for by its means the zeal of the flock entrusted to him will be rekindled and sustained. Families in which the Sacred Heart reigns and which nourish the spirit of the Enthronement will be for the pastor a staunch support upon which he can confidently rely.

Because of its great importance, the presence of a priest at the Enthronement has always been urged by the founder of the work and by the Church itself. Whenever possible, it should be presided over by a parish priest, who thus has a splendid opportunity of meeting entire families. Many priests have experienced the beneficial results of these contacts.
