HEALTH MINISTRY NOTES

Burn baby burn?! Not exactly what you want after a day of fun in the sun. Protection is prevention for those painful, red blistering burns. Remember the days of slathering baby oil on your body and laying out in the sun all day? Ouch! My shoulders and back hurt just thinking about those horrible blisters. Unfortunately, those blisters and sunburns of our youth can turn into skin cancers later in life. Melanoma is the most deadly form of skin cancer. So, to prevent further injury... protect yourself. Avoid sun during the hours of 12 Noon to 3:00 pm; that's when UV rays are the strongest. Use sunscreen frequently. Don't forget your face, nose, and ears. Remember that sun glare off of water increases the intensity of the rays and bounces them onto areas that you don't normally think will burn. Ever have an under the chin burn after being at the beach or on a boat? Be kind to your birthday suit—it's the only one you'll get.

COLD WATER THERAPY MACHINE NOW AVAILABLE

Health Ministry purchased a cold water therapy machine for use following knee, hip, shoulder, or ankle surgery. It provides wonderful, convenient, programmable cold applications. To borrow this machine, contact Dotty 662-2057.

“IHS” AND “XP”

“IHS” and “XP” can be seen on the Eucharist, Priests’ vestments, Tabernacles, Monstrances, and sacred art and architecture... but what do they mean? Where do they come from?

IHS and XP are Christograms – combinations of letters that represent the holy name “Jesus.” Early scribes would abbreviate the sacred names of Jesus by using the first two letters of the name, or the first and last letters, with a line over the letters. For example, the Greek letters Chi-Rho (which looks like our English X and P) was an abbreviation for the name “Christ.” Likewise, I (iota) and H (eta) are the first two Greek letters for “Jesus.” Sometime in the second century, the third letter, S (sigma), was added, thereby rendering IHS. These Christograms, such as XP or IHS, served as secret codes, whereby inscribed on a tomb, they indicated a deceased Christian, or on a doorpost, a Christian home. IHS is not an acronym for “I have suffered.”

St. Bernardine of Siena (1380-1444) and his student St. John of Capistrano (1386-1456) used the Christogram IHS to promote devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus. In their preaching missions throughout Italy, they carried wooden placards with the IHS surrounded by rays. St. Bernardine and St. John blessed the faithful with this monogram, invoking the name of Jesus, and many miracles were reported. They also encouraged people to have the monogram placed over the city gates and the doorways of their homes, instead of a family crest, to show their devotion and allegiance to the Lord. Countering the objections of some who considered this veneration superstitious, Pope Martin V in 1427 approved the proper veneration to the Holy Name and asked that the cross be included in the monogram IHS. Largely due to St. Bernardine’s preaching, the name “Jesus” was added to the Hail Mary: “Blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.”

Also during this time, due to the decline of Greek and predominance of Latin, IHS was viewed as an acronym for the Latin Iesus Hominum Salvator, meaning “Jesus Savior of Mankind.”

What is most important is that each of us shows proper respect, reverence and devotion for the name of Jesus. St. Paul in his Letter to the Philippians wrote, “So that at Jesus’ name every knee must bend in the heavens, on the earth and under the earth, and every tongue proclaim to the glory of God the Father: Jesus Christ is Lord” (2:10-11). Just as a name gives identity to a person, the name of Jesus reminds the hearer of who He is and what He has done for us. Keep in mind that the name Jesus means “Yahweh saves” or “Yahweh is salvation.”

Invoking Our Lord’s name with reverential faith is turning to Him and imploring His divine assistance. An old spiritual manual cited four special rewards of invoking the holy name: First, the name of Jesus brings help in bodily needs. Jesus Himself promised at the Ascension, “In my name they will cast out demons, they will speak in new tongues, they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them, they will lay their hands on the sick and they will recover” (Mk 16:17-19).

Second, the name of Jesus gives help in spiritual trials. Jesus forgave sins, and through the invocation of His name, sins continue to be forgiven. At Pentecost, St. Peter echoed the prophecy of Joel: “Then shall everyone be saved who calls on the name of the Lord” (Acts 2:21). As St. Stephen, the first martyr, was being stoned, he called upon the name of the Lord and prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit” (Acts 7:59).

Third, the name of Jesus protects against Satan and his temptations. Jesus on His own authority rebuked Satan and exorcized demons (e.g., the temptations in the desert, Mt 4:1-11).

Finally, we receive every grace and blessing through the Holy Name of Jesus. He said, “I give you my assurance, whatever you ask the Father, He will give you in my name” (Jn 16:23-24). In summary, St. Paul said, “Whatever you do, whether in speech or in action, do it in the name of the Lord Jesus” (Col 3:17).

Christograms composed of Greek letters:

Iota (I; “I” or “J”) Eta (H; “E”) Sigma (Σ; “S”) = Jesus

Chi (X; “Ch”) Rho (P; “R”) = Christ

Alpha (A; “A”) Omega (Ω; “O”) = first & last letters of Greek alphabet

EUCHARISTIC ACT OF FAITH

(2004-11-07) In a letter addressed to Archbishop Carlo Ghidelli of Lanciano-Orlona, the Pope said: "I very much desire that, during the Year of the Eucharist, every diocesan community renew publicly its act of faith in Jesus present in the sacrament of the altar and inspire all its life and pastoral action in the Eucharistic spirituality that emerges so clearly in the evangelical accounts."

In response to the above statement, the Catholic Doors Ministry authored this Eucharistic Act of Faith:

I believe in God the Father Almighty.

I believe in God the Son, Jesus Christ.

I believe in God the Holy Spirit.

I believe in the Holy Trinity.

I believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

I believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Body of Christ, the Consecrated Bread.

I believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blood of Christ, the Consecrated Wine.

I believe that Jesus instituted the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church as His dwelling Home on earth.

I believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Sacred Tabernacles of the Catholic Church.

I believe that Jesus is truly present physically among us, over and above being spiritually present within us.

May this truth be known to all for the glory of God. Amen.

THE DIVINE PRAISES

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother; to you do we come; before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer them. Amen.

SUMMERTIME DRESS

Visitors to St. Peter’s Basilica, the Sistine Chapel, or the Vatican Museums are required to abide by an official dress code: men can wear long pants and shirts with at least short sleeves; women can wear trousers, capri pants, or skirts and dresses (knee length or longer). Bare shoulders, shorts, and short skirts are not permitted. It seems reasonable to abide by the same standards in our own church during Divine worship. By doing so, we show our respect for God and one another.
