The De Profundis

The De Profundis ("of the depths") is the famous Psalm 130 of anguish and sorrow for sins, set to music by many great composers. It is a penitential psalm used by the Roman Catholic Church in Vespers (evening prayer), in Masses for the dead, in prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory (the Church Suffering), and to express remorse for our faults to Christ... a beautiful expression of repentance.

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord:
Lord, hear my voice.

Let Thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.
If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities:

Lord, who shall stand it?

For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness:

and by reason of thy law, I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath relied on His word,

my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night,

let Israel hope in the Lord.

Because with the Lord there is mercy:

and with him plentiful redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

V/. Lord, hear my prayer.

R/. And let my cry come unto Thee.

V/. Let us pray. O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful; grant to the souls of Thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that by our devout supplications they may obtain that pardon which they have always desired. Who livest and reignest, world without end.

R/. Amen.

V/. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

R/. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

V/. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R/. Amen.
