FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BRYAN

My dear friends, as I announced at last weekend's Masses, I am among several priests who have been assigned to other parishes in our diocese. I will begin my assignment as Pastor of Queen of Peace Parish in Hawley, PA, on July 15.

Also on July 15, Father Philip Rayappan will begin his assignment as Pastor of Holy Child Parish. He will be coming here from Holy Name of Mary Parish in Montrose, PA. Please join me in welcoming him!

I am deeply grateful for these years as your Pastor. It has been an incredible blessing and joy to journey with you in faith here in Tioga County and beyond.

Although this transition is not without sadness, we know that even in death, life has changed, not ended, and that God will provide the necessary graces through prayer and the Sacraments.

Please be assured of my continued prayers for you, your next pastor, and all involved in these transitions. I am most grateful for your prayers in kind. Thank you!

Blessings!

~Father Bryan

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother; to you do we come; before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer them. Amen.

SACRED HEART FILM'S
U.S. SHOWINGS COINCIDE WITH BISHOPS' NATIONAL CONSECRATION

WASHINGTON (OSV News) – A French blockbuster is coming to theatres in the U.S. just in time for the consecration of the nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Released in France on Oct. 1, 2025, the docudrama "Sacré Coeur," subtitled "His Reign Will Have No End" focuses on the apparitions of Jesus Christ to a French Visitation religious sister, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, showing his heart to her between 1673 and 1675, in Paray-le-Monial, in the French region of Burgundy.

"Sacré Coeur" will be shown in theaters June 9-11 and June 14 via KREA Film-Makers, Saje Distribution and Fathom Entertainment. Information is at sacredheartfilm.us.

The showings coincide with the U.S. bishops' June 11 consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Produced to mark the 350th anniversary of the apparitions, the docudrama combines historical reenactments, testimonials and expert analysis. It gives ample space to accounts of personal encounters with Jesus Christ, often during adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

The witnesses & speakers are very diverse, ranging from Father Matthieu Raffray, a French traditionalist priest known for his strong views on social media, to prisoners, members of parliament & a former drug dealer from Bondy, a town in the northern suburbs of Paris known for its high crime rate.

The film's directors, Steven and Sabrina Gunnell, were inspired to produce the film after their visit to the Burgundy shrine. Steven Gunnell is a former member of the French 1990s boy band Alliage. He converted to Catholicism and now works with his wife Sabrina to produce films related to their deep Christian faith.

The film places great importance on the shrine of Paray-le-Monial. Entrusted to the Emmanuel Community since 1985, the shrine welcomes tens of thousands of pilgrims each year. It was the site of a highly successful jubilee celebration for the 350th anniversary of the apparitions from December 2023 to June 2025.

The jubilee was closely linked to the late Pope Francis' last encyclical, "Dilexit Nos," subtitled "On the Human and Divine Love of the Heart of Jesus Christ," published Oct.2024.

BREAD OF LIFE: THE EUCHARIST IN GALILEE

Christ's teaching about the Eucharist is the crescendo of His entire ministry: all his work in Galilee prepared for and pointed to the Eucharist. Five-part series about Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist.

PRESENCE

Although it appears as simple bread & wine, it is actually the "source & summit" of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church.

AS NATION IS CONSECRATED TO SACRED HEART OF JESUS IN JUNE, BISHOP BAMBERA TO MARK SOLEMNITY WITH TWO SPECIAL MASSES

(OSV NEWS) and (SCRANTON)– On Thursday, June 11, 2026, Catholic Bishops across the United States will take part in a rare and historic spiritual moment – consecrating the nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as the country prepares to mark the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence and its creation of the first large-scale, self-governing republic in the modern world.

The national consecration, organized by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), will take place during the Bishops' Spring Assembly at Mary, Queen of the Universe Basilica in Orlando, FL, and will be lived streamed via the USCCB homepage.

Archbishop Alexander K. Sample of Portland, Oregon, who chairs the USCCB Committee for Religious Liberty, told OSV News there are three essential reasons the bishops voted for the consecration.

First “would be to place our nation under the kingship of Christ,” he said. “Yes, we are a democratic republic; we are a civil society – but no civil society can long endure without being under the kingship of Christ himself; to place ourselves under God’s providence & care.”

“In the history of our nation, it’s undoubtable and it’s irrefutable that the faith – and our reliance on God – really was the foundation that our Founding Fathers placed this nation on,” he said. “So, as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, it’s to remind all of us that – whatever civil government we might have – we are all under, ultimately, the kingship of Christ.”

Second, Archbishop Sample noted “there’s a reparation aspect to the Sacred Heart. I think we can’t forget that part of the consecration is to make reparation for offenses against God; against the heart of Christ”, as individuals and as a nation.

Finally, Archbishop Sample said, “As we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we can’t just honor it as a private devotion. It has to move us, and move our hearts.” Pope Francis, he said, “called attention to the fact that the heart of Christ is the heart of mercy ... and through the heart of Jesus, we find healing and reconciliation.” Pope Francis brought the Sacred Heart to wider Catholic attention with the 2024 encyclical “Dilexit Nos” (“He Loved Us”), observing the devotion needs to be revived for our era.

Locally in the Diocese of Scranton, Catholics are being invited to participate in this moment in a special way as well.

Most Rev. Joseph C. Bambera, Bishop of Scranton, will celebrate Masses at the Diocese’s two parishes dedicated to the Sacred Heart – located in Peckville and Dupont – as Catholics throughout the country unite in prayer for healing, renewal, and hope.

Bishop Bambera will be unable to attend the national consecration due to a previously scheduled commitment connected to ecumenical dialogue in Rome; this has created an opportunity for Catholics in northeastern PA to celebrate the Solemnity with him close to home. Much more than ordinary feast day observances, the occasion will offer Catholics an opportunity to rediscover a Church devotion that has been around for hundreds of years.

Bishop Bambera will celebrate a Vigil Mass for the Solemnity at 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 11, at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Peckville. Pastor, Fr. Andy Kurovsky said, “I hope people get as excited about it as I am, because it really is a great thing. We want to encourage our families to go home and consecrate their families and their homes to the Sacred Heart of Jesus,” he added. “We are finding that our young people are really intrigued by practices that people in my age group took for granted because we grew up with them. There is nothing more beautiful – when you think of any image of Jesus – than to talk about His heart, which is about love,” Father Kurovsky reflected. “That is what the Lord is for us – our life-source.”

One day later, Bishop Bambera will celebrate the Solemnity Mass at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, June 12, at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Dupont. For Father Thomas Petro, the celebration continues a long-standing parish tradition centered on prayer, Eucharistic Adoration, and hospitality. “For many years, Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Dupont has had a whole day of prayer dedicated to our patronal feast,” Father Petro explained. The parish will begin the day with Mass at 7:30 a.m., followed by Eucharistic Adoration throughout the day. Benediction will take place shortly before the evening Mass with Bishop Bambera. A parish gathering and potluck meal will follow in the parish picnic grove.

“We would very much like to welcome people who perhaps have never been to Dupont or been to our church, to pray with us and then to share with us a meal afterwards,” Father Petro said. “It’s just a time for us to get together, and to welcome the faithful from outside our parish to come and celebrate this important day. Devotion to the Sacred Heart focuses so much upon reparation for sin – our own sins, and those of other people, our country, our culture. I think it’s a great way for us to realize who we are as Catholics, who we want to be as Catholics, and where we’re all going together as Americans. This is a great time in our American history to acknowledge that we need God more than ever,” he said. “We need to humble ourselves. We need to listen to His call as Christians and as Americans – and also – we need to focus upon His great love for us.”

Both pastors hope the celebrations will draw Catholics from throughout the Diocese of Scranton.
